

SIMENA SECTIONAL

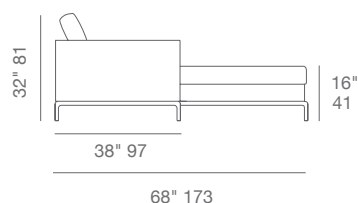

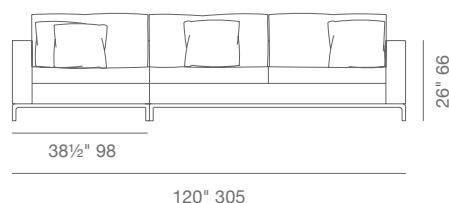

Simena is a contemporary sectional that is built on solid birch wood frame. The frame is upholstered with removable Velcro enclosed fabric and wool leather slip cover. The loose back cushions are filled with shredded foam and down and feather. Simena sits on a continuous tubular metal base which has cylindrical stainless steel legs tipped with plastic glides. Aside from the stock colors shown, Simena Sectional may be special ordered in range of other colors and materials with no minimum quantity required.
